

Denver Union Terminal Railway

DENVER UNION TERMINAL RAILWAY.

Inc. in CO, August 17, 1912

Trackage, June 30, 1917:

4.130 mi. Standard Gauge yard and terminal trackage

1.767 mi. Three-Rail yard and terminal tracks

Equipment

No equipment owned

After purchase, Denver Union Terminal undertook the following:

Removed and enlarged center section of terminal buildings

Raising and remodeling Sixteenth Street Viaduct

Relocating and re-laying terminal tracks

Construction of Baggage and passenger subways

Installation of Electric elevators, Interlocking plants, power distribution systems, additional tracks and approach to Twentieth Street Viaduct.

Controlled by:

The Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe Railway

Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad

The Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific Railroad

The Colorado and Southern Railway

The Denver and Rio Grande Railroad

Union Pacific Railroad

Union Depot and Railway Company (4/1/1914)

UNION DEPOT AND RAILWAY COMPANY..... Denver Union Terminal Ry

Inc. in CO, November 17, 1899

Continued predecessors operations

Union Depot and Railroad Company (11/20/1899)

UNION DEPOT AND RAILROAD COMPANY..... Union Depot and Railway Co

Inc. in CO, November 21, 1879

Acquired lands and built stone depot and trackage in Denver, CO, 1880-1881